6 RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit

8 WHEREAS, Few California-bred horses may claim to winning 9 any one of the Triple Crown races — the Kentucky Derby, the 10 Preakness Stakes, and the Belmont Stakes — as 1,800 foals are born 11 in California compared to 20,000 foals in Kentucky; and

12 WHEREAS, Four “California-bred” horses, including a horse 13 named California Chrome, may boast a Kentucky Derby win, and 14 no California horse has won the Triple Crown; and

15 WHEREAS, California Chrome’s upbringing is a story that 16 embodies the very best of California’s horse racing traditions and 17 landscape as he was foaled in the horse breeding division of Harris 18 Ranch, the state’s largest beef producer; and

19 WHEREAS, California Chrome’s mother, Love the Chase, was 20 an unfortunate racing filly purchased by Steve Coburn of Topaz
21 Lake, Nevada and Perry Martin of Yuba City, who together own
22 Martin Testing Laboratories located at the McClellan Business 23 Park in Sacramento; and

24 WHEREAS, Mr. Coburn and Mr. Martin purchased Love the 25 Chase outright for a paltry sum of $8,000, a transaction that 26 prompted someone to say that “only a fool would buy Love the 27 Chase,” and, as such, Mr. Coburn and Mr. Perry formed a company 28 aptly named Dumb Ass Partners, or DAP; and

29 WHEREAS, DAP retired Love the Chase in 2009, bred her with 30 the equally unimpressive Lucky Pulpit, and together the two horses
31 sired California Chrome, who was born in 2011 with four white
32 stockings and a white stripe down his face, features that horse 33 aficionados call “chrome”; and

34 WHEREAS, California Chrome bears many unique 35 characteristics, including him appearing to deliberately stop and 36 pose for cameras as he hears them clicking while walking in the 37 stable area, which prompted his exercise rider, Willie Delgado, to 38 give him an additional nickname, “Vogue”; and

39 WHEREAS, Another unusual characteristic is that California
40 Chrome refuses to walk forward out of horse vans when the

1 transport vehicle is designed for a forward exit, preferring to back 2 out instead; and

3 WHEREAS, As a two-year-old, California Chrome raced several 4 times at Los Angeles' Hollywood Park, San Diego's Del Mar
5 Racetrack, and Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, where he won some 6 races and finished sixth in others; and

7 WHEREAS, Jockey Victor Espinoza and California Chrome
8 had been unstoppable together, with a six-race winning streak that 9 included the Golden State Juvenile Stakes, California Cup Derby, 10 the San Felipe Stakes, and the Santa Anita Derby; and

11 WHEREAS, The pair dazzled fans during this year's Kentucky
12 Derby and Preakness Stakes, where California Chrome won by 1 13  $\frac{3}{4}$  lengths and 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  lengths, respectively; and

14 WHEREAS, California Chrome gained nationwide appeal, but 15 the core of his fan base was centered in the Central Valley of 16 California, where the Sacramento television market ranked sixth
17 in the nation for television viewership for the Preakness Stakes, 18 and third in the nation for the Belmont Stakes; and

19 WHEREAS, Local followers of California Chrome in the Central 20 Valley, also called "Chromies," liked that purple was a color on 21 the horse's racing silks, similar to the team colors of the 22 Sacramento Kings; and

23 WHEREAS, Eleven horses entered the Belmont Stakes, and 24 California Chrome drew post position number two, the same post
25 position of former Triple Crown winner Secretariat in the 1973
26 Belmont; and

27 WHEREAS, Out of the gates, California Chrome was stepped 28 on by the horse next to him, tearing off a "chunk" of his hoof, yet
29 despite this most unfortunate occurrence, California Chrome 30 finished in a dead heat for fourth with Wicked Strong; and

31 WHEREAS, As a result of his unique pedigree and remarkable
32 racing accomplishments, California Chrome has been dubbed 33 "America's Horse," has earned over $3.4 million in earnings, and 34 has tremendously benefited the state's $34 billion horse racing
35 industry; now, therefore be it

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON RULES

Richard S. Gordon, Chair

ACR 161 (Logue, et. al) – As Amended: July 3, 2014

SUBJECT: California Chrome.

SUMMARY: Recognizes the outstanding performance of California Chrome during his remarkable run for thoroughbred horse racing's Triple Crown, and, in particular, for his tremendous victories in the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness Stakes. Also, recognizes the many Californians who are part of the ownership group, breeding, and training cadre that led to his success and would recognize the storied history of thoroughbred horse racing in California. Specifically, this resolution makes the following legislative findings:

- 1) California has a long and proud thoroughbred racing history and in particular, the Central Valley has been the birthplace of champions since the 1880's with California Chrome born and raised at Harris Farms in Coalinga, continues that tradition.
- 2) California horse racing today accounts for an estimated 50,000 jobs, 148,000 thoroughbred horses, and a $2.5 billion impact on the state's economy.
- 3) California Chrome, a chest-nut colored horse as golden as his home state, transcended thoroughbred horse racing to become an international phenomenon not just with his brilliant speed and winning ways, but due to his heart-warming story and the people who make up his team; and, California Chrome became the first California-bred colt to sweep the first two legs of the Triple Crown.
- 4) Success is the result of teamwork and California Chrome's campaign is no exception and Jockey Victory Espinoza guided the colt to those six straight wins and assistant trainer Alan Sherman served as his father's right-hand man and accompanied their Triple Crown candidate for six weeks on the road.

- 5) California Chrome's Triple Crown bid fell short when he injured a hoof at the start of the 146th Belmont Stakes, yet valiantly finished tied for fourth only 1 ¾ lengths from victory, but that loss does not diminish his amazing accomplishments.
