TO: The Honorable Ken Cooley, Chair
The Honorable Members of the Assembly Committee on Rules

RE: House Resolution 14 (Thurmond) – AFSCME SUPPORTS

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), AFL-CIO, would like to inform you of our support of House Resolution 14 as introduced on January 31, 2017.

HR 14 declares the month of March 2017 as Social Work Month. Social workers, including the influential "Mother of Social Work" Jane Addams, have historically supported working people's ability to unionize and obtain freedoms granted to working families through collective bargaining. Through their advocacy and commitment, social workers have made remarkable contributions to policies concerning child labor, workers' compensation, compulsory education and many civil rights issues.

AFSCME proudly advocates for workers in this profession who tirelessly care for the health and well-being of Californians from all facets of society and of all ages and backgrounds. Social workers practice within communities to address the root causes of social and economic inequality and base their work upon the values of human rights and social justice. Protecting these core values is now more vital than ever given the heightened discrimination that vulnerable communities are facing across our country.

HR 14 gives due recognition to the social workers AFSCME represents who provide vital public services on the county and statewide level. This class of workers deserves to be honored for the indispensable work they do in advocating for and empowering disadvantaged communities with the resources they need to achieve successful life outcomes.

Please join us in supporting House Resolution 14.

Should you have any questions regarding our position in this matter, you may call me at your earliest convenience. AFSCME also reserves the right to change our position in the event of future amendments.

Sincerely,

Brian A. Allison

RE: House Resolution 16 (O'Donnell) – AFSCME SUPPORTS

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), AFL-CIO, would like to inform you of our support of House Resolution 16, as introduced on February 2, 2017.

HR 16 promotes reading and marks the importance of adult involvement in the education of our youth by establishing March 2, 2017 as "Read Across America Day." The National Education Association and the California Teachers Association, along with students, parents and business and community leaders will celebrate the occasion by assuring that every child is in a safe place reading together with a caring adult.

AFSCME recognizes the impactful role that school workers across California have played in guaranteeing that education is accessible to each child and cultivating the next generation of readers. Their work enables students to be successful throughout their academic careers, prepares them to thrive in the workplace and allows them to remain competitive in a global economy.

Investment in education is essential to ensuring a community's long-term well-being and quality of life. AFSCME supports this resolution to promote children's literacy and community involvement in youth education programs.

Please join us in supporting House Resolution 16.
