House Resolution No. 96—Relative to the 4th of July.

1 WHEREAS, July 4, 2020, marks the 244th anniversary of the 2 signing of the Declaration of Independence, and by the adoption
3 of that document — formally entitled, “The unanimous Declaration
4 of the thirteen United States of America” — the nation we today
5 know as the United States of America officially came into being,
6 an occasion forever memorialized by President Abraham Lincoln
7 in the words of his Gettysburg Address as when “... our fathers
8 brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, 9 and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal”;
10 and

11 WHEREAS, On June 7, 1776, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,
12 at a location today known as Independence Hall, Virginia delegate 13 Richard Henry Lee brought the following resolution before the 14 Second Continental Congress of the United Colonies: “Resolved, 15 That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and 16 independent states, that they are absolved from all allegiance to 17 the British Crown, and that all political connection between them
18 and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved 19 ... .”; and

20 WHEREAS, On June 8, 1776, Lee’s resolution was referred to 21 a committee of the whole of the Continental Congress, at which 22 time they spent most of that day, as well as June 10, debating 23 independence; and

1 WHEREAS, On June 11, 1776, a “Committee of Five” — with 2 Thomas Jefferson of Virginia being picked unanimously as its first
3 member, and also including John Adams of Massachusetts, 4 Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania, Robert R. Livingston of New 5 York, and Roger Sherman of Connecticut — was charged with 6 drafting a declaration of independence for consideration by the 7 Continental Congress; and

8 WHEREAS, The members of the “Committee of Five” assigned
9 Jefferson the task of producing a draft declaration, and on June 10 28, 1776, he produced a draft that, with minor changes by the 11 committee members, was forwarded to the Congress for its further 12 consideration; and

13 WHEREAS, On July 2, 1776, the Second Continental Congress
14 adopted the Lee resolution upon the affirmative vote of 12 of the 15 13 colonial delegations, an occasion that delegate and future
16 President John Adams detailed to his wife Abigail in a letter written 17 July 3, 1776, as follows: “Yesterday the greatest Question was 18 decided, which ever was debated in America, and a greater perhaps, 19 never was or will be decided among Men ... .”; and

20 WHEREAS, On July 4, 1776, after further debate and changes 21 to the committee document, the Continental Congress adopted the 22 Declaration of Independence establishing the United States of 23 America, to which John Hancock that day affixed his signature,
24 with 55 other delegates representing the 13 colonies — now states 25 of the newly created nation — signing the declaration within the 26 next several weeks; and

27 WHEREAS, July 4 is a day unlike any other — in the history
28 of the United States of America, and indeed, the world — in that 29 not only is it the day that an infant nation formally defied the most 30 powerful empire on earth in a quest for freedom, liberty, and 31 independence, but even more importantly because on that day this 32 new nation declared as a “self-evident truth” — known and 33 knowable to all persons at all times in all places throughout the 34 world — the radical notion that “all men are created equal ...
35 endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that 36 among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness”; and

37 WHEREAS, Since its adoption and bold pronouncement more 38 than two centuries ago, the Declaration of Independence and the 39 principles which animate that timeless document have inspired 40 literally billions of persons around the world to pursue freedom in

1 their own nation, for themselves and their own loved ones, and for 2 their fellow men and women, and remain today an imperfectly
3 unrealized goal to which all Americans and all who cherish liberty 4 must rededicate themselves, just as the drafters and signers of the 5 Declaration of Independence did by declaring: “with a firm reliance 6 on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge[d] to 7 each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor”; and

8 WHEREAS, On this and every July Fourth, it is both proper 9 and fitting that the institutions of California government, and 10 indeed all Californians, express heartfelt gratitude and indebtedness
11 to those men and women who have served in the Armed Forces
12 of the United States, and in particular to those who have suffered 13 the injuries of battle and who have made the ultimate sacrifice in 14 protecting freedom and liberty around the world, recalling the 15 words of President Abraham Lincoln that, as a result of their 16 profound sacrifice, “... this nation, under God, shall have a new 17 birth of freedom — and that government of the people, by the 18 people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth”; now,
19 therefore, be it

20 Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the 21 Assembly of the State of California does — and intends to every 22 year immediately preceding the 4th of July — take this opportunity
23 to recognize and celebrate July 4, 2020, and the 244th anniversary
24 of the birth of our great nation and the signing of the Declaration
25 of Independence that this day represents; and be it further

26 Resolved, That the Assembly of the State of California calls 27 upon all the people of the great State of California, and the United 28 States of America, to take the opportunity of the 4th of July holiday 29 to obtain a greater knowledge and understanding of the facts and 30 circumstances that compelled the 13 original colonies to declare 31 their independence, and of the timeless principles of liberty, 32 equality, and self-determination that rest at the heart of the 33 Declaration of Independence; and be it further

34 Resolved, That the Assembly of the State of California, on behalf 35 of a grateful citizenry, hereby expresses its heartfelt thanks, 36 appreciation, and prayers to all who have served — and who 37 currently serve — in the Armed Forces of the United States, in 38 recognition of the countless sacrifices and the indispensable role
39 these brave men and women have played even before the founding 40 of our nation on July 4, 1776, in preserving, protecting, and

- 1 defending the freedoms and liberties of all Americans, and
- 2 expanding freedom throughout the world; and be it further
- 3 Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall make
- 4 available suitable copies of this resolution for distribution by
- 5 Members of the Assembly of the State of California.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON RULES
Ken Cooley, Chair
HR 96 (Boerner Horvath) – As Introduced May 28, 2020

SUBJECT: The 4th of July.

SUMMARY: Recognizes and celebrates July 4, 2020, and the 244th anniversary of the birth of our nation and the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Specifically, this resolution makes the following legislative findings:

- 1) July 4, 2020, marks the 244th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and by the adoption of that document formally titled, “The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen United States of America”, the nation we today know as the United States of America officially came into being, an occasion forever memorialized by President Abraham Lincoln in the words of his Gettysburg Address as when “...our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.”
- 2) On June 7, 1776, Richard Henry Lee brought forth a resolution, which resolved that the colonies should be “free and independent states...and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved....” After several days of debate, a "Committee of Five", which included Thomas Jefferson of Virginia, John Adams of Massachusetts, Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania, Robert R. Livingston of New York, and Roger Sherman of Connecticut, was charged with drafting a declaration of independence for consideration by the Continental Congress.
- 3) On July 4, 1776, after further debate and changes to the committee document, the Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence establishing the United States of America; and, John Hancock that day affixed his signature, with 55 other delegates representing the 13 colonies – now states of the newly created nation – signing the declaration within the next several weeks.
- 4) Since its adoption and bold pronouncement more than two centuries ago, the Declaration of Independence has inspired literally billions of persons around the world to pursue freedom in their own nation, for themselves and their loved ones. Americans must rededicate themselves just as the drafters and signers of the Declaration of Independence did more than two centuries ago.
- 5) On this and every July 4th, it is both proper and fitting that the institutions of California government, and all Californians express gratitude and indebtedness to those who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States, and in particular, to those who have suffered the injuries of battle and who have made the ultimate sacrifice in protecting freedom and liberty around the world.
